NJ SOPHE PRESENTS...

A Roadmap to Public Health in New Jersey: Driving into the Future

Friday, December 2, 2011
8:00 am - 3:30 pm

NJHA Conference & Event
Center

760 Alexander Road
Princeton, NJ 08540

OBJECTIVES

- Build collaborations with non-traditional public health sectors to address the social determinants of health, as showcased in new local and state initiatives.
- Increase your capacity and skills for policy, systems and environmental changes to help implement health reform and to achieve health equality.
- Explore the dynamics and theory of how systems change as it applies to your work in collaboration with businesses, schools, health care organizations, state and local governments or the non-profit sector.
- Discuss ways that NJ SOPHE provides expert assistance to public health to enhance public health development (i.e., policy implementation, capacity building, strategic planning, collaborative projects, cooperative agreements) and the impact on New Jersey health professionals.
- List and describe the importance of being involved in professional organizations (national and/or local).
- Describe three ways you can be involved in NJ SOPHE to help steer the organization into the future.
